SMALL INTIMATE DAY WORKSHOP TAILORED FOR PARTICIPANTS

Donna and Simon are both award winning Australian writers and illustrators who frequent the Pilot Station annually.

Donna will bring a large display of the entire background of the process of book making, including many original artworks, rough drawings, rejected art (great for discussion) proofs and all of the stages of the creation of a book. The workshop may cover character formulation; scene development; descriptive techniques; refining and editing text; and publishing.

As this will be a small group the writers will gain a little insight from participants before the workshop and tailor the day to suit the group.

Full day workshop with morning tea provided. The workshop will be heavily subsidised with participant tickets costing $50 for the day. This is an incredible opportunity places are very limited so please get in touch quickly via our website <https://www.camdenheadpilotstation.org.au/>
